AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Big Tabloid Musical Comedy and Mary Pickford in "Rags" Features for Next Week.

An exceptionally strong bill has been booked for the Auditorium for all next week when the first tabloid musical comedy of the season with 15 people in the cast will appear as well as the excellent Paramount feature Rags, with Mary Pickford playing the lead-

The musical comedy will be pre sented by the Irish and Scotch Tabloid Players, an aggregatidon of 15 clever people who will appear for the first three days of the week in an unroarintree days of the week in an unroar-jously funny Irish comedy with music entitled Shaun's Farewell. Among the Tabloid players is James Doroty, who is the possessor of a rich tenor voice and who will be remembered as a soloist with the Honey Hoy Minstrels. Several other equally well known Several other equally well known artists are included in the cast, and there is a chorus of ten pretty girls who put a lot of pep in their work and who have particularly good singing voices which will be heard in many of the latest popular song hits. The show is full of novelties and neat specialties and is away from the or-dinary run of such shows as the entire company has been carefully selected and every member is in it for some special purpose. The Tabloid players will remain here all week and on Thursday will give a complete change of program, which will be a Scotch of program, which will be a Scotch piece entitled McGregor's Anniversary

On the picture program for Monday and Tuesday only will be the Paramount feature Rags, with the popular little actress Mary Pickford, in the leading role, a short synopsis which follows:

of which follows:

Rags is the daughter of a drunkard, who abuses and mistreats her, but whom she loves with all the ardor of her strong young soul. Her mother was loved by a wealthy man, to whom, however, she preferred the worthless man she married dwing after the hirth man she married, dying after the birth of her daughter. How Rags, through the invisible influence of destiny, be-comes so enmeshed in the web of fate that she meets the nephew of the man whom her mother rejected, and falls in love with him, though realizing that his social position is too far above hers to ever permit a mar-riage between them, and how eventually her mother's lover learns of her unhappiness and takes her to his pal-ntial home to live with him, where his nephew agair meets her and in the new surroundings renews his love, are convincingly and sympathetically re-lated in the photoplay.

"Evidence," Mammoth World-Film

Feature with Edwin August, 5 Reels. This story relates how Lord Wimbourne, finding his wife, Lady Una, in the embrace of a former lover, Capt. Pollock, on their balcony after a party at their home, refuses to listen to explanations from his wife, from Pollock, or from Lushington, anfrom Pollock, or from Lushington, another friend of the family, and former suitor of Lady Una's. Thus he does not learn that Pollock, in a drunken state, has forced his attentions on Una, and that she was innocent in every way. Pollock, in the spirit of revenge, sends Lady Una a note, telling her that her husband is ill at a famous inn in the country district. In great distress she hastens to the inn, and upon entering the room where her and upon entering the room where her husband is supposed to be, she finds herself in the room and power of Pollock. She is about to throw herself from the window, when she hears the voice of her husband, who has heard of her being at the inn. Breaking down the door, the husband finds Una in a faint. Pollock and Una are left to their disgrace. After the divorce, Lushington, a true friend of the family, tries to bring about a reconciliation through their little son. Lord Wimbourne refuses to be reconciled. Vimbourne refuses to be reconciled and declares he will marry an ad-venturess, who has done her best to further the gap between husband and wife. It is only after Una has again refused Lushington, and that he has refused Lushington, and that he has gone to India to forget his sorrow, that evidence is produced to prove Una's guiltlessness. Lushington comes across Pollock, who is ill, and the captain signs a written confession exon-elating Una. Returning with the doc-ument, Lushington gives it to Lord Wimbourne. In reconciling his dearest friends, Lushington finds happiness, although he realizes that he will never be able to fulfill the greater level. be able to fulfill the greatest longing of his heart to have Lady Una as his

DAVIS THEATRE TODAY.

Matinee Harry Lauder-Evening Regular Show of Vaudeville and Pictures. Harry Lauder, the greatest comedian of all times, and probably the only man in the world who can hold an audience unaided for nearly an hour and a half will be seen at the Davis theatre this afternoon for one performance only.

Mr. Lauder brings with him besides the old favorites a budget of new songs and will be supported by one of the largest vaudeville con which have ever been brought together for a single engagement.

As there are still a few good seats left ,anyone contemplating going se-rure their tickets at once, TONIGHT.

The regular programme of vaude-ville and photo plays will be given tonight and the feature is The Little Gypsy, a five part Fox feature. The Little Gypsy is a drama of heart appeal and moving human interest. Starred in it is the most delightful and dainty of all dramatic stars, Dorothy Bernard, already a beloved favorite dramatic features. In this picture dramatic features. In this picture some remarkable effects are introduced, one of the most noteworthy being taken at night in the depths of a patch of dark woods while a furious thunder storm was raging, the rain descending in sheets. Among the descending in sheets. Among the other thrilling scenes are those of the burning factory, the bursting dam and the devastating flood. The Little Gypsy is a delightful romance of love, thrills and dramatic power. Other Mutual movies and comedies and Marlette's Marionettes, a big vaude-ville attraction, completes the show.

Shows at 7 and 8.45. Regular prices.

DAVIS THEATRE. Coming Next Weet, "The Sins of Mothers," Five Part Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Feature.

For the first two days of next week the management of the Davis an-nounce as the special attraction the five part Vitagraph Blue Ribbon fea-ture, The Sins of the Mothers," with Anita Stewart and Earle Williams starred. The New York Evening Sun held a crenario competition. One thousand dollars were offered for the dollars were offered for the most original and dramatic plot. Manuscripts poured in—four thousand of them. They came from all parts of the world.

The judges were the late John Bunny and Maurice Costello of the Vi-tagraph company; Don Marquis and Errol Hart of the Evening Sun, and Edwin M. LaRoche of the Motion Picture Story Magazine, who presided. These men know motion pictures. They know scenaros, When they read them they see exactly how they will ook on the screen.

From the four thousand manuscripts they selected one. This was "The Sins of Mothers," It was written by Elaine Sterne-an American. The Sins of Mothers is a story of gambling. The heroine is a beautiful girl. She loves cards. She loves races. She loves roulette, She loves all games of chance. She loves them with a passion that is a mania.

You know how the drug habit can grip a man, or the liquor habit. You know to what lengths it will lead him This girl inherits a similar craving— a craving for gambling. It is born in her. Her mother before had the gambler's instict. She secretly kept gambling house. You see this girl returning from a convent where her mother sent her Free Burning Kinds and Lehigh is a child. You see her about to ener society.

She is loved by a strong man. He future is before her. She is taught to play cards. You see her heritage assert itself. You see it grip and issert itself. You see it grip and hold her in its meshes. She can't re-

How it lures her! First to the bridge tables of fashionable society—then to the races—and finally to the notorious gambling hell formerly kept by her nother! You see the great race track scene You know how Vitagraph can stage a scene like this.

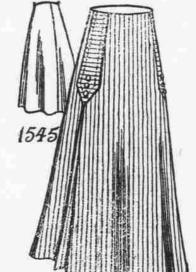

You see the inside of the gambling nouse—the gamesters. You see the raid by her husband who has become District Attorney. He doesn't know she is there. You see what happens. All these things appear before you on the screen in intense reality.

The vaudeville attraction for the first half of the week is the Capital Realism is another feature that deserves special commendation in this unusual offering. The settings are so is one of the best singing acts of the complete in every little detail, that audiences will be under the impression them. The remainder of the bill in-Itched and Burned Awfully Behind Ears. Was Fretful and Scratched. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Baby's Face and Head Well.

Frankfort, Me,-"When my little baby girl was two months old her cheeks began to break out in a little fine rash and kept getting worse. At the edges of her hair and behind She would wake up out of her sleep and cry and rub her face until it would bleed. At times it seemed to go in under the skin, then it would break out just like a burn. The skin would scale up and peel off. She was fretful and scratched. "I was given two kinds of cintment and I also used others all without success. I saw an advertisement of Cuticura Soap and Ointment in the paper and sent for a free sample. When I had used these with a large cake of Cuticura Soap and some Cuticura Ointment baby's face and head were

A MAN OF LETTERS. When Clegg was young, the first de-

He learned to blab A B C. In dreams he now began to see An honorary LL. D.

But then, alas! The end is sad, For poor old Clegg went raving mad Upon the walls incessantly He scribbles Clegg and X Y Z. And P D Q and Q E D, A literal calamity.

The keepers say he alms to get A corner on the alphabet. -New York Times.

EASY TO CRITICISE. It is easy to sit in the sunshine.

And talk to the man in the shade;
It is easy to float in a well-trimmed boat

And point out the places to wade.

And point out the places to wade,
But once we pass into the shadows,
We murmur and fret and frown,
And our length from the bank, we shout for a plank,
Or throw up our hands and go down
It is easy to sit in our carriage,
And coansel the man on foot;
But get down and walk, and you'll change your talk,
As you feel the peg in your boot.
It is easy to tell the toller,
How best he can carry his pack;
But no one can rate a burden's weight

How best he can carry his pack; ut no one can rate a burden's weight Until it has been on his back, he up-curled mouth of pleasure, Can preach of sorrow's worth; ut give it a sip, and a wryer lip Was never made on earth. -Ella Wheeler Wilcox

HUMOR OF THE DAY

"I wish we were there. This car is getting close."
"Yes, and it will get closer as we get nearer."—Pelican. "I am thoroughly disgusted with this war," said the low brow. "Weil?"

"It's such a bomb scrap."-St. Louis Ag. Prof—If you had two windmills on your farm and found you didn't have wind enough to run them, what would you do? Stude (promptly)—Take one down.
-Penn State Froth.

"My ancestors came over in th Mayflower," announced the man who prides himself on his blue blood. "Hugh!" snorted the man of red corpuscles. "Mine sailed in the Ark!" New York Times. "Now, ma, cautioned pa, "don's ree too much on your guests at din-

"What then?" sniffed ma.
"Make it a sociability run, not ar adurance contest." - Kansas City

"You must learn to 'swat the fly, Ethel. Flies carry typhoid fever." "Certainly."
"Mother, why doesn't it kill the fly?"—Life. Mess cook-'Ere, Bill, next time you send up a crate of chickens see that they don't get loose. I've spent hours scouring the neighborhood and only been able to find 10. Orderly—"Ush, 'Erb, 'ush. I only sent yer six!—Tit-Bits.

THE KALEIDOSCOPE This country now owns 8,000 islands supporting a population of 10,000,000. The commerce of these Islands ex-ceeds $300,000,000, or more than that of the United States in any year prior Investigations by the geological survey of the erosion of numerous drainage basins of the United States show that the surface of the country is being worn away at a rate of about an inch in 760 years. In Vermont 5,076,375 maple trees were tapped this year and nearly as ping. In 1912 5,682,063 pounds of sugar and 455,403 gallons of syrup.

Not to be outdone by the new coins of the United States, the Bulgarian government has commissioned an Austrian factory to coin a variety of pieces, 20, 10 and five stotinki. One hundred stotinki equal 19.3 cents. The noted order of the Golden Fleece is a military one instituted by Philip the Good, duke of Burgundy, in 1429, on the occasion of his mar-riage with the Portuguese princess

Isabella. The order now belongs to both Spain and Austria. The average price of petroleum in the United States was $0.806 per bar-rel in 1914, or $0.148 less tha nin 1913. The decline has continued, the average price being probably 10 to 12 per cent. lower than last year. Exports, however, are becoming more normal.

Pain is a visitor to every home and usually it comes quite unexpectedly. But you are prepared for every emergency if you keep a small bottle of Sloan's Liniment handy. It is the greatest pain killer ever discovered. Simply laid on the skin—no rubbing required—it drives the pain away. It is really wonderful.

is really wonderful.

Mervin H. Solster, Berkeley, Cal.
writes: "Last Saturday, after tramping around the Panama Exposition with wet feet, I came home with my neck so stiff that I couldn't turn. I applied Sloan's Liniment freely and went to bed. To my surprise, next morning the stiffness had almost dis-appeared, four hours after the second March, 1915. At Drusgists. 25c.
